JACK DEMUND AGAIN.

The going at Harlem yesterday was in as bad condition as it was possible to be and the gloomy, threatening weather held the attendance down to the regulars. The card was made up of purse races and the sport was very tame throughout.

The most important race of the day was the fourth, a dash of six furlongs for three-year-olds and upward. C. B. Campbell on his last race was made a prime favorite, being held at 7 to 5 in the betting, but the best he could do was to run fifth, the winner, turning up in Jack Demund, which was skillfully ridden by Buchanan. Herodiade led by a big margin up to the last eighth and appeared to be the winner, but in the final sixteenth Jack Demund wore him down fast, winning handily by one length from Charley Thompson, which beat Corinne Unland a head for second place. Corinne Unland began slowly, but made up ground fast in the last quarter and was running past horses at the end. Herodiade tired fast when the pinch came. C. B. Campbell was beaten when a furlong out.

The day's opening race, a dash of five and one-half furlongs for maiden two-year-old fillies, went to Impetuous, which beat Goody Twoshoes a neck in a spirited last sixteenth struggle. Animula came fast at the end and was beaten only a head by Goody Twoshoes for second place. Wilkenson was unable to keep the winner from bearing over against Goody Twoshoes in the last fifty yards, but the interfering was not enough to change the result, and the claim of foul lodged by Donnelly was not allowed. Monia made up ground in the last quarter and finished strongly.

The second race, a four and a half furlongs scramble for two-year-olds, resulted in an exciting finish, Louise Collier winning by a length, while Joe Buckley, The Don and Mallory finished heads apart in the order named. Laura F. M. led by a big margin up to the last fifty yards, where she tired fast. About here Louise Collier, which had moved up fast when turning for home, passed into the lead, holding it to the wire, winning handily. Joe Buckley stood a long stretch drive with gameness and would not be denied in the closing strides. The Don was given a listless ride, but was passing horses fast at the end. Mallory began slowly and just before entering the stretch appeared to be hopelessly beaten off, but when well straightened for home he closed up ground fast and finished strongly. He appeared sore and stiff when going to the post.

The third race, a seven furlongs dash for all ages, was taken by Lord Touchwood the odds-on favorite, but he had all he could do to win by a short head on the post from Hoodwink, which beat Fake eight lengths for second place. Marco closely pressed by Fake and Hoodwink showed the way for the first half where he fell away beaten. Fake and Hoodwink then took up the running, but the former tired fast in the last quarter and fell away beaten when a furlong from home. Along about the last eighth Lord Touchwood, which had been badly outrun up to this point, gradually closed up on Hoodwink and outstayed her to the wire under a hard drive. The others were never serious contenders.

Lady Meddlesome was thrown into a soft spot in the fifth race, a dash of one and one-sixteenth miles for three-year-olds and upward, winning in a canter by six lengths from Do Madge, which beat Filiform ten for second place. Do Madge led for the first seven furlongs, where Lady Meddlesome easily passed into the lead on call and won as her rider pleased. Barrack labored heavily in the going and was never a serious contender.

The last race of the day, at one mile and a sixteenth, went to Mary Moore, smartly backed by a "wise" few. She led from start to finish, winning easily by one length from All About, which beat Alaska a neck for second place. All About was under keen pressure all through the last quarter and outstayed Alaska, which finished stoutly under a vigorous ride.

Betting was somewhat lively for the crowd in attendance. The track at its best today will be holding and heavy.

Time, 12½, 24, 48½, 1:02½, 1:12.
Winner—Blk. or br. f, by Ormus—Alveria M. (trained by A. Franklin).
Went to post at 2:15. At post 2 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second the same. Olefant liked the going and trailed the pacemakers to the stretch, where she moved up fast and won going away. Interval set a fast pace and held on gamely. Squid trailed far back and dropped into third place at the end after Parisienne retired. The latter, almost left, closed a tremendous gap in the first half and then tired badly. The going anchored her, but she outclasses this kind except Olefant on a fast track. Scratched—35037 Hurstbourne, 126; 33305 Blue Banner, 112; 35271 Erorra, 106; 34918 Scoffer, 105; 33476 Lord Turco, 104.

Winner—Ch. c, by Star Ruby—La Toquera (trained by G. B. Morris).
Went to post at 2:45. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Sombrero forced a fast pace from the start and gamely stood off Andy Williams' strong bid in the stretch. The latter went in the bad going throughout and suffered from a weak finish or he might have won. Oom Paul was probably handicapped by the bad going and failed to stay. Francesco, always outrun and never a serious contender, can do much better on a fast track. Scratched—35384 Slipthrift, 108; 35165 De Reszke, 98.

Winner—B. c, by Masetto—Sis Himyar (trained by T. Welsh).
Went to post at 3:10. At post 1 minute. Start bad. Won easily; second the same. The Musketeer, away running, made most of the advantage and early obtained a long and winning lead and was easing up at the end. Condrum put up a fast and game effort under pressure from the start and kept coming on strongly at the end. Bellario was ridden a waiting race with disastrous result. Scratched—35337 G. Whittier, 110; 35295 Clorita, 110; 35066 Bluff, 108; 35099 Stevedore, 108; 35276 Emma, 107; 35383 Sweet Billie, 105; 35295 Operator, 105; 35162 Honolulu, 99.

Time, 11¾, 24¾, 48¾, 1:02, 1:11¾.
Winner—B. c, by Stuyvesant—Katie A. (trained by P. Burch Jr.).
Went to post at 3:40. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Stuyve waited on the pacemaker to the stretch where he easily went to the front and was much the best today. Oclawaha suddenly improved, ran well and finished strongly. King Pepper tired and quit after going a fast half and was evidently unfit. Malden went well throughout. Setauket, outrun early, was closing up at the end. The track was not muddy enough for him. Bluff, nearly left again, trailed throughout and could have been easily second with a more vigorous ride. Lady Sterling displayed unexpected early speed with this kind. Scratched—(35406) The Musketeer, 118; 35295 Clorita, 109; 35099 Stevedore, 108; 35172 Snark, 105; 34015 Eva Mine, 99.

Went to post at 4:05. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second handily. St. Finnan outclassed the field in the going, led well in hand and had the race safe at all stages. Star of the West, away badly, closed a gap and finished fast. The Black Scot held on well after a hard, early effort to beat the winner. Hot made up ground in the last quarter. Tribes Hill was carried hopelessly wide on both turns and also handicapped by the heavy going. Amur may improve. Scratched—34887 General Mart Gary, 118; 35276 Anna Darling, 113; 35362 Gold Braid, 104.

St. Finnan, show, 2 to 5. Star of the West, show, 7 to 10. The Black Scot, show, 2 to 1. Tribes Hill, show, 4 to 5.

LOCAL TURF GOSSIP.

John Condon, who is interested to a considerable extent in the California Jockey Club, received a dispatch during the afternoon yesterday from President Tom Williams of the California Jockey Club, stating that the measure before the board of supervisors providing for the reopening of Ingle-side had been ordered passed to print by a vote of eleven to five. The bill will come up for a final hearing next Monday, and it is confidently expected that it will be passed by the same vote.

Jockey Winkfield was yesterday suspended for all but his contract employer, P. Dunne, pending investigation of his ride on the heavily-backed favorite, The Don, in the second race.

Jockeys Birkenruth, C. Bell and Donnelly were assessed $25 each by the starter for misbehavior at the post in the second race.

ENGLISH HORSES FOR SALE.

Regarding the imported horses recently advertised for sale in DAILY RACING FORM by W. D. Grand of the American Horse Exchange, the sale to take place in New York, October 7 and 8, Daily America of Monday says:

"The largest consignment of thoroughbreds ever imported to this country is now on exhibition at the Empire City racetrack. The consignment comprises eighty-four head; forty broodmares, nine stallions, sixteen yearlings, thirteen foals and six racehorses.

"One feature in connection with the consignment is the splendid condition shown by the horses on arrival in this country after a ten days' sea voyage. No sickness of any kind was apparent during the voyage, and the only accident was while unloading on this side, and that was so trifling as to be scarcely noticeable now. They all show a clean bill of health.

"The horses that make up the importation are not as many suppose, culls and castoffs of the English turf, but were purchased at the various auctions and by private contract, by men of experience and are really a high class lot.

"The choicest and most fashionable lines of thoroughbred blood in the English Stud Book are represented in the consignment. The broodmares are by such fashionable sires as Minting, Springfield, Rosebery, Ayrshire, Tristan, Kilwarlin, Barcalaine, Merry Hampton, Donovan, Melton, Doncaster, Gallinule and others famous in England and this country.

"A majority of them are in foal to high class sires, among those represented being Melton, Diamond Jubilee, Wolf's Crag, Sanfain, Raeburn and Simontault, the last two sons of S. Simon.

"Good Morning, the young horse which is generally conceded to be the pick of the stallions, is only four years old. He is by Gallinule, out of Bonnie Mora. Good Morning was one of the best two-year-olds of his year and twice met and defeated Mr. Whitney's Volodyovski.

"At the end of his two-year-old season he got away from his caretaker and ran into a post and chain fence, crippling himself so badly that he was in retirement during his three-year-old career. He was trained early this season and, while he displayed the speed of his two-year-old form, did not seem to like the hard tracks and it was decided to retire him permanently. He is a fine individual.

"The other stallions are Resolute, a son of the great Australian sire, Trenton, Westminster by Bender, My Boy by Marcion, Lockford by Juggler, Ruskin by St. Frusquin, St. Leonards by St. Simon, and Tanzmeister by Saraband.

"The yearlings are untried. They are by such sires as Kilwarlin, the sire of Ogden; Sir Hugo, Trenton, Common, Sanfoin and others of note, Sanfoin is the sire of Rocksand, one of the best, if not the best, two-year-olds in England this year.

"The foals are a good lot, and all are by fashionable sires.

"The racehorses in training are a part of the racing stable which Gene Leigh has been campaigning on the other side. They are Watertown, Omaha II, Harlem Lane and Beau Imperial, a brother of Beau Gallant.

"Leigh claims that the handicappers had such a high opinion of these horses that it was impossible for him to place them so that they could win, except in selling races. Harlem Lane, which won many races here two years ago, looks little larger now than she did then, but is said to possess her old-time speed."

TURF FOLLOWERS AND TURF SPECULATORS TAKE NOTICE!

For various reasons we are in a position to furnish some of the best information obtainable at the Harlem meeting. We say it is the best because it will win. Our system is to send horses that have been and are at present thoroughly conditioned and will be entered according to their respective merits. We don't give six a day, because we are unable to do so. We would do ourselves and the public a rank injustice if we attempted to do this, nor do we send one every day, but only wire when we are sure. It is with much confidence that we call the special attention to those who are interested in turf speculations to our

GOOD JOCKEYS SCARCE.

"The action of William C. Whitney in signing T. Burns to ride for him next season, when this rider is at present under suspension by the Jockey Club stewards, has occasioned considerable surprise and talk among horsemen. Jockey Bullman, who is also under suspension, was, it is said, advised to remain on the eastern courses," says Morning Telegraph.

"Aside from the question as to whether these two jockeys are likely to receive licenses again next year, Mr. Whitney's action (regarded as a practical business move) calls sharp attention to the decided lack of good riding material now at hand in this country.

"The retirement of these two jockeys, without regard to the complaints which caused the revocation of their licenses, undoubtedly weakened the riding talent available. There has been complaint on this score all season, and on more than one occasion owners have been compelled to scratch their horses in stake events for the lack of competent riders.

"J. B. Haggin could not get a jockey for his eligible in the Futurity, and was compelled to withdraw on this account. G. B. Morris, who has raced a big stable this season, is now without a jockey.

"Of the comparatively old jockeys now in the saddle, Odum is about the only one riding in good form, and naturally he has a strong following whatever his mount.

"Spencer rides only occasionally, and he will not be in evidence next season, having signed a contract to ride in Austria. Turner is practically out of it, as he has grown too heavy to ride in the majority of races now, and is seldom seen in the saddle.

"The same applies to McCue, though the latter can still ride a good race. O'Connor is dead out of luck or form and has had a very bad season.

"Lucien Lyne and Arthur Redfern are the most promising of the younger boys, and both are riding in splendid form. But of the others there is not a great deal to be said in their favor, and the outlook for next season is not particularly bright, to say the least.

"Owners now are trying all sorts of experiments with apprentice boys, and some of them may prove to be useful for next season's service. Boiesen has shown some ability and won a couple of races at the present Gravesend meeting.

"S. S. Brown continues to put up little Brussal, and the midge had the mount on Lady Josephine in a stake race on Saturday. Sheedy, another apprentice, won with Biserta during the week.

"With the present limited number of jockeys of standing, the players have been forced to follow the inexperienced lads when it looked as though their mounts had a chance. It is no longer a case of good jockey, good horse, for a heavy wager, but good horse and any sort of jockey that is put up, and then hope for the best.

"These conditions naturally make toward harder forms of speculation and bring about fewer truly run races. Much of the erratic form shown during the season can be ascribed directly to the lack of competent riders.

"Meanwhile the jockeys who have gone from here to England, France, Germany and other foreign countries continue to ride in great form and are making a lot of money. These foreign owners have, in fact, seriously crippled the home tracks in the matter of jockeys.

"Danny Maher is one particular star which America lost to the English turf, but he probably is making two or three times the money in that country that he could make here.

"Then there are Henry, Johnny Reiff, C. J. Hopkins, 'Skeets' Martin, Thorpe and Talar, to mention only the best of the jockeys who have deserted the American turf. With these seven back on American tracks there could be little complaint of poor horsemanship, and a return to conditions of some years ago when there were enough capable riders to go around and insure truly run contests.

"There is little likelihood, however, that they will return here to ride and the American turf must continue to struggle along as best it can with the riding material it has.

"For one thing the apprentices are getting plenty of experience these days, and it is to be hoped that out of the army of exercise boys who are coming on there will spring another Lyne or Redfern to help matters out for the racing season of 1903."

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The millionaire turfman and breeder, James B. Haggin, authorized the statement which was given out at Elmhurst in response to a request, that he had not abandoned negotiations for the purchase of the Kentucky Association race course, and that there was a promise of the deal being consummated. He declined to discuss the matter as to what use the track would be put if purchased, or whether racing would be revived; also the reported possibility of a new racing circuit, of which this track might be one. Charles Green, of St. Louis, is owner of the track, and the price at which it is said to be held is $40,000.

Winner—Ch. g. by Dochart—Golden Slipper (trained by W. Mulkey).
Went to post at 2:34. At post 9 minutes. Start good for all but By Ways. Won driving; second easily. Bas d'Or was cut off at the start, but closed ground fast in the stretch and finished strongly. Hetzel showed much speed, but was hustled off his stride, ridden with a loose rein and allowed to swerve at the finish. By Ways, all but left at the post, was saved until in the stretch, then came fast and is evidently a good filly. Doc Mayer can do better. First Love showed speed, but tired.

Autumn Leaves was off badly, was thrice cut off and once pulled up, but came around the field on the stretch turn and won drawing away. It was a brilliant race for her. Amigari ran a good race, finished strongly and showed much improvement. Miss Wandelohr showed speed and ran her best race. Trauer showed improvement. Miss Knickerbocker ran a good race and might have won with a stronger finish. St. Vitus came fast through the stretch. Ma'selle's race was a very bad one. She is usually a strong finisher. Noweta's effort was also below par. Harry Griffith showed early speed.

 Went to post at 4:35. At post 7 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second easily. Claude was lucky and saved to the stretch, where he made good in resolute style. Sheriff Bell, easily best, raced the first half in bad going next to the rail and worked out a rough journey and finished with a rush. Witfull closed up ground steadily and ran the best race of her career and was evidently favored by the going. Lord Turco, carried wide and bumped in the stretch, was a good horse and much improved. Scoffer injudiciously forced the pace in the worst going and swerved all over the stretch. Examiner broke slowly and improved his position throughout. Lowly, nearly left, closed a big gap and must be useful. First Chip was raced to a standstill in the first half and was easing up right at the end.
